Transportation to INAF

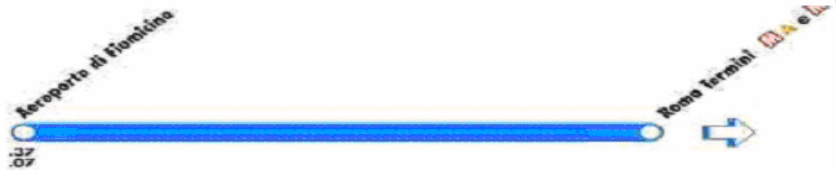

To get to Rome from the Airport you have the following options:

1) public transport + taxi

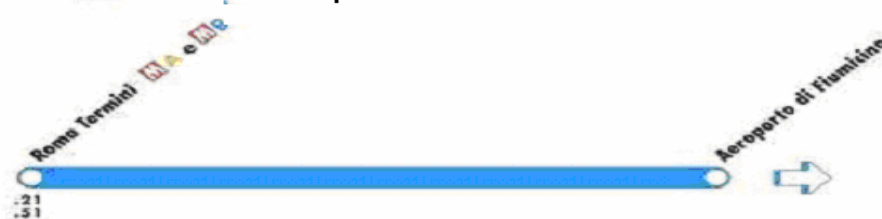

A Non-Stop connection is available (Leonardo Express Train). Departures from the Airport are scheduled from the Airport Railway Station every 30 minutes, at .07 and .37 of each hour. The ticket costs 11,00 Euros, first class only. The Leonardo Express Train takes about 32 minutes to reach Termini Railway Station. From Termini Railway Station to the Airport trains leave at .51 and .21 of each hour. Trains leave from track 24 (about 350 metres far from the platform entrance).

From 6.37 till 23.37 Leonardo Express leaves for Rome Termini at the times shown

From 5.51 till 22.51 Leonardo Express leaves for Fiumicino Airport at the times shown

From Termini Railway Station you can reach the place of the meeting by taxi, it takes about 20 minutes and it costs about €15.

If you prefer public transportation, once you get off at the station Termini, follow the sign "Metro A Line" (Linea A); take the train in the direction Battistini and it takes about 20 minutes to reach the stop Cipro (Musei Vaticani) where you have to get off. The bus 913-907-999 from Piazzale degli Eroi will take you to Piazzale Medaglie d'oro where you have to get off and you are near Viale del Parco Mellini that can be reached on foot.

Ticket cost: Euro 1

2) Taxi

If you take a taxi directly from the Fiumicino Airport it takes about 40/50 minutes and it costs about €45.
